INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 13 & 14 NOVEMBER 2019
ANTWERP, BELGIUM, PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT BUILDING

ONE SAFE PLACE FOR HOPE AND EMPOWERMENT

Strategies, Tools and Products to build and support Family Justice Centers and related multidisciplinary approaches of Gender-Based Violence, Domestic Violence and Child Abuse

The European Family Justice Center Alliance welcomes you!

The International Conference One Safe Place for Hope and Empowerment is organized by the European Family Justice Center Alliance (EFJCA) and the Family Justice Center Antwerp with support of the City Antwerp, the Flemish Government, the Province Antwerp and the Soroptimists clubs Antwerpen Anthos, Antwerpen and Antwerpen De Zes Rozen.

The conference will give forum to plenary speeches from distinguished guests and workshops/training sessions on a range of interesting topics in the field of multidisciplinary approach.

Topics are:

- How to Start and Sustain a FJC
- Hope and Empowerment as key tools in the approach of the FJCs
- (Non-fatal) Strangulation
- The role of working with perpetrators in the FJC
- The Multifocus Methodology
- Moral Deliberation
- The role of employers and companies in tackling domestic violence

Our colleagues from the U.S. Alliance for Hope, Gael Strack, founder of the FJC movement, Chan Hellman, Prof. Social Work, Univ. of Oklahoma, director of The Hope Research Center and James Henderson, trainer of US Office on Violence Against Women, will join our conference.
